

FOI 9145 - Attachment 1
Prince Philip Hospital

Questions	Answers
1 How many Obstructive Sleep Apnoea home sleep studies do you perform per week? (approx.)	12 +
2 In your Sleep and Respiratory Services which diagnostic methods (not brand) do you routinely use (first-line) for the diagnosis of Obstructive Sleep Apnoea? (e.g. Polysomnography, polygraphy, Oximetry) (Could be multiple choice)	Polygraphy
3 For the diagnosis of Obstructive Sleep Apnoea, which manufacturer's technology do you use? (e.g. ResMed, Nox, Nonin, Watch PAT Itamar) (Could be multiple choice)	ResMed
4 For sleep apnoea home sleep studies, how do you most commonly provide diagnostic equipment to patients? (e.g. Patient collects, courier, combination)	The patient (or representative) picks up and drop off from the clinic
5 In your service, please indicate the approximate percentage (%) of new patients who are setup with a CPAP device via:	Face to face setup (patient in hospital) 100%
6 During the first 90 days of CPAP therapy, on average how many times do you proactively follow-up with patients to support them?	2 minimum
7 For the ongoing management of compliant Obstructive Sleep Apnoea patients, what is your most common follow-up process? (e.g. scheduled virtual follow-up, scheduled face to face follow up, reactive)	Other - Mixture of face to face and virtual follow up
8 How do you most commonly distribute CPAP consumables and accessories (masks, tubing etc.) to patients? (e.g. Patient collects, post)	Other - mixture of postal and collection