Strategic Discover Report- applying the initial learning from our pandemic response to a delivery of our Health & Care strategy.

30th July 2020

The importance of learning from this once in a century event

It has impacted every area of our lives:

personal and professional on our services - how, where and what we provide

on our communities

on the way we live our lives

Amongst the negative impacts we have experienced, there has been significant change for the better

Our responsibility is to capture the learning, recover from what has happened and ensure the positive changes are embedded for the benefit of our staff and the public we serve

That is what this Discovery Report is about and is an important milestone in our ongoing response to the pandemic

‘Out of a bad situation with COVID-19 [came] the opportunity for us to change our way of work with immediate effect. It was the stimulus to be innovative and dynamic, being able to continue to provide safe and timely care to our patients. It has brought us all together more and it is amazing what can be achieved as a team and with the support of each other and our patients.’

‘What the Transformation Programme Office (TPO) is doing in gathering feedback is exactly what should be done. But it’s so important we feed this back. So that people feel listened to and action is taken or an explanation of why not.’
